LIVING IN LIGHT OF ETERNITY

1 Pet. 1:6, “In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, you have been grieved by various trials,

1 Pet. 1:7, “that the genuineness of your faith, being much more precious than gold that perishes, though it is tested by fire, may be found to praise, honor, and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ,

1 Pet. 1:8, “whom having not seen you love. Though now you do not see Him, yet believing, you rejoice with joy inexpressible and full of glory,

1 Pet. 1:9, “receiving the end of your faith—the salvation of your souls.”

Rejoicing in the Midst of the Present Fiery Trial Because Our Knowledge of the Word and Our Love For Christ which Enables Us to Look to a Future Deliverance in This Life as Well as the Glories to Come. 1 Peter 1:6–9

Doctrine of Suffering for Blessing

1. Every believer goes through tests.

A test is any situation where we choose to either sin or obey the Word; react through mental attitude sins: anger, lust, resentment, jealousy, bitterness—or sins of the tongue: gossip, maligning, lying, deception—or overt sins.

People tests

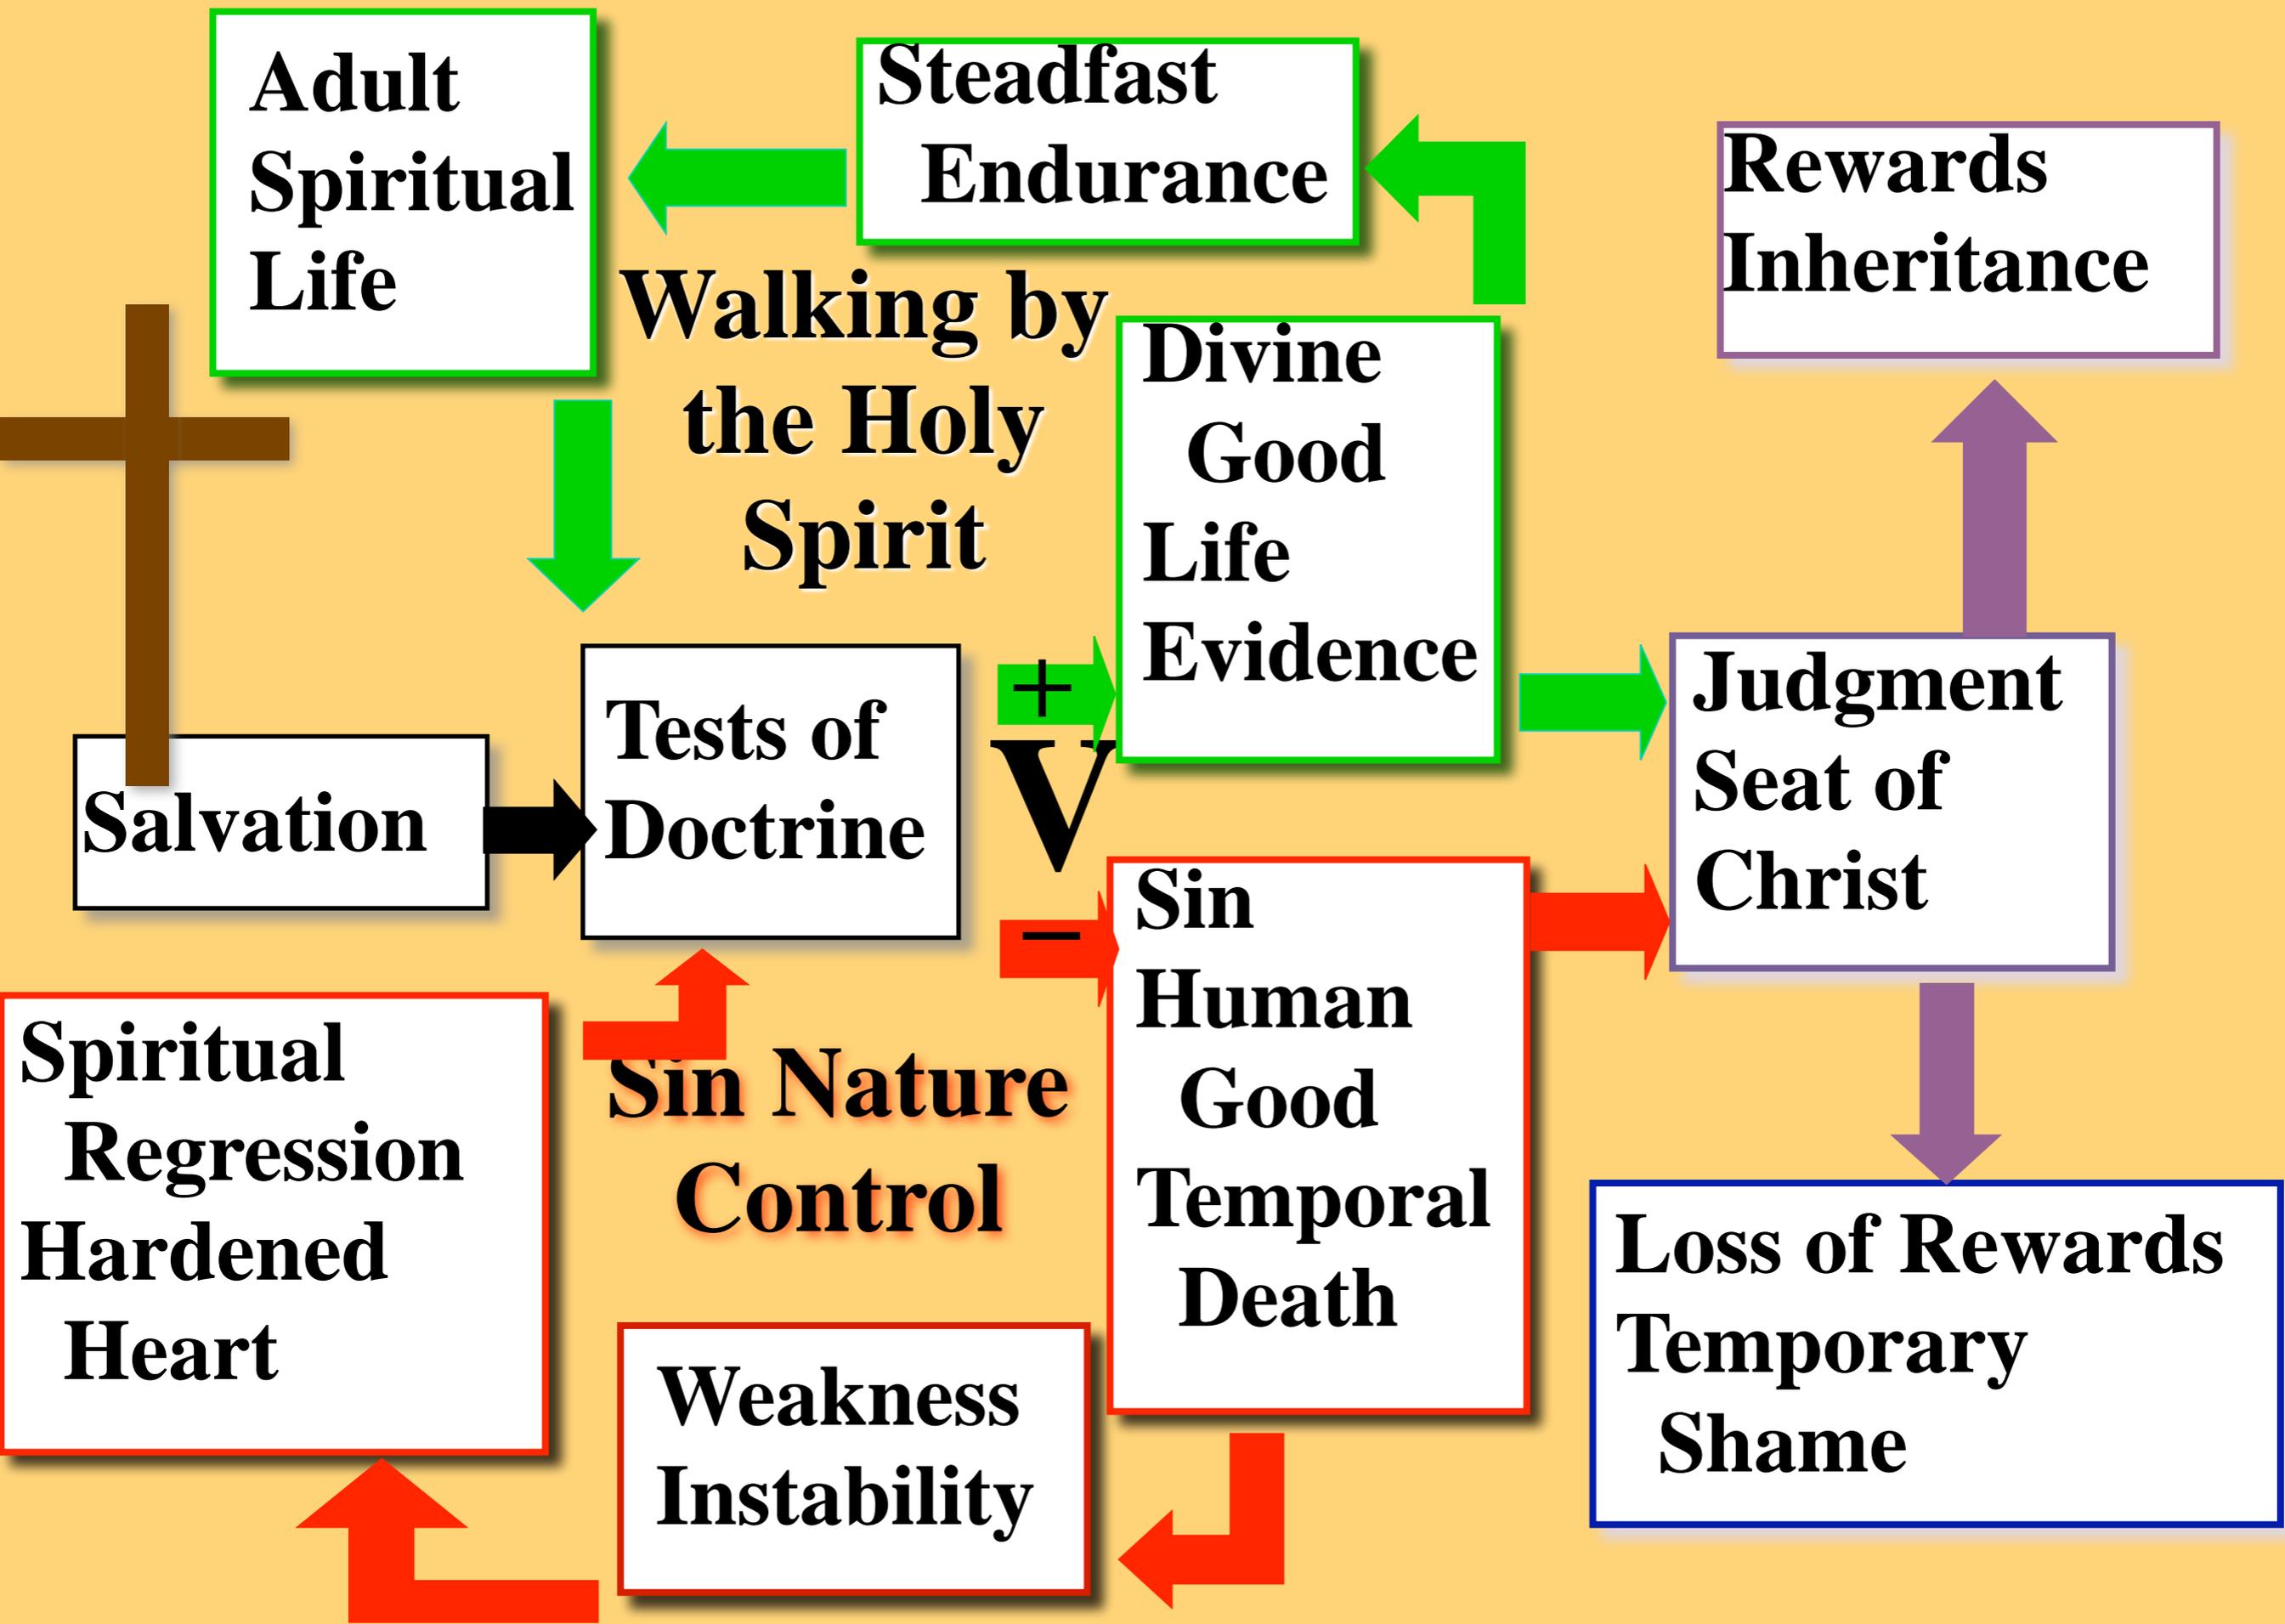

Authority tests

System tests

Moral tests

Thought tests

Emotional tests

2. God's training program utilizes adversity to teach us to utilize the 10 spiritual skills, which are spiritual skills needed for spiritual growth.

Phil. 4:8, “Finally, brethren, whatever things are true [alethes], whatever things are noble [semna honorable, consistent with God’s character], whatever things are just [consistent with God’s integrity], whatever things are pure [morally unstained], whatever things are lovely [acceptable, pleasing to God], whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue [moral excellence] and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things.”

Four Spiritual Skills in 1 Peter 1:6–9

- 1. Joy is what we refer to as Inner Happiness, sharing the happiness of God.
- 2. FAITH is what we believe, doctrinal orientation.
- 3. Love for Christ is what we refer to as Occupation with Christ.
- 4. By believing is what we refer to as the Faith Rest Drill.

3. God trains us through situations which teach us to respond biblically.

4. A skill is mastered through constant repetition and practice, but only perfect practice makes perfect.

5. We have two options, either walk by the Spirit and apply the teaching of Scripture or opt for the sin nature.

5. We have two options, either walk by the Spirit and apply the teaching of Scripture or opt for the sin nature.

This is called walking according to the sin nature, Gal. 5:16;

walking according to the flesh, Rom. 8:4;

walking in darkness, 1 John 1:6, 2:11;

walking according to our lusts, 2 Pet. 3:3;

Jude 16

6. When we choose to obey the Word and continue walking by the Spirit this is called:

walking in the light, 1 John 1:7, Eph 5:8;

abiding in Christ;

abiding in the light, 1 John 2:10;

walking in truth, 2 John 4; 3 John 3;

walking by the Spirit, Gal. 5:16;

walking according to the Spirit, Rom. 8:4;

living according to the Spirit, Rom. 8:5

7. A test is a test of doctrine in our soul; therefore a test focuses on knowledge of God's Word, that is the teaching of God's Word or doctrine.

8. Tests are designed to expose our flaws, but primarily to reveal our obedience.

9. The process is describe in James 1:3; testing our doctrine and application of Faith-Rest Drill (FRD); this produces endurance, and as we strengthen in endurance, it leads to maturity.

When we fail, we confess sin, “reboot,” and keep moving, moving forward, “enduring,” “persevering.”

10. Reasons why we suffer; why we are tested.

Reasons we have adversity:

- 1. We live in a fallen world, corrupted by sin.
- 2. We live with fallen, corrupt, sinful creatures.
- 3. We live with our own fallen, corrupt nature.

11. Purposes for deserved and undeserved suffering.

Deserved:

Hos. 8:7, “They sow the wind, and reap the whirlwind. The stalk has no bud; It shall never produce meal. If it should produce, aliens [undocumented, illegal foreigners] would swallow it up.”

11. Purposes for deserved and undeserved suffering.

Deserved:

Gal. 6:7, “Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap.”

11. Purposes for deserved and undeserved suffering.

Deserved:

For the unbeliever: A wake up call to salvation.

For the believer: Rebuke, correction, need to confess sin and recover, need to use the problem-solving skills.

As a witness to others: Both human and angelic, cf., Job.
